

GOD'S PLAN with MAN

by

Harold Wright

A summary in simple terms of the
FIRST PRINCIPLES
of
TRUTH REVEALED
IN THE BIBLE

1st edition published by the Australian Christadelphian
Central Standing Committee,
(ACCSC), 1964

INTERNET EDITION 2002
by the kind permission of Harold Wright

www.theChristadelphians.org

Unless specified,
Scriptural quotations are from the
Revised Standard Version

CONTENTS

God's Plan With Man	1
There is a God.	1
There is only one true God	1
God has a plan	2
The Earth shall be filled with His glory!	2
The Bible is God's word	2
God formed man from the dust.	3
Death came by Sin.....	3
The dead know nothing”	3
God sent His Son to save men.....	3
Jesus is the Son of God.	4
The Seed of the woman	4
The Holy Spirit.....	4
The way, and the truth and the life.....	5
Jesus was of our nature.....	5
The Devil.....	5
Christ died for us.”	6
God raised Jesus from the dead.....	6
Jesus will come again	6
The dead shall be raised	7
The judgment seat of Christ,	7
The wicked shall perish.....	7
“The gift of God is eternal life	7
Belief and baptism are both necessary	8
What is the Kingdom of God?.....	8
Jesus will be king	8
God's Covenant with David.....	9
Israel – a special people	9
The Jews – God's witnesses.....	10
Signs of our times.....	10
Jerusalem shall be called the throne of the LORD”	11

Christ’s faithful saints will be His co-rulers.....	11
The earth is the promised inheritance of the righteous	11
Mortal subjects of the Kingdom,.....	11
One wise, just and perfect law	12
The blessings of this coming age	12
Men shall be blessed in Him:	12
Let the whole earth be filled with His glory.....	12
The Millennium –.....	13
God will be all in all.....	14
Death shall be no more,.....	14
“There shall be no more curse.”	14
God’s Covenant with Abraham.....	14
A world covenant.	15
“God shows no partiality,.....	15
“The heir of the World”	16
Christ is the seed of Abraham	16
Heirs according to Promise	16
The hope of Israel.....	16
Baptism is a burial in water.....	17
A new life	17
A new creation	17
“Christadelphian”	19
“Seek first the kingdom of God.....	19
“Faith without works is dead” James 2:20, 26	19
You shall love your neighbour as yourself.....	19
Not of the world,	20
A people for his name” Acts 15:14	20
The building of a character.....	22
Let us go on to perfection”	22
Perfect through suffering” Hebrews 2:10.....	23
Count the cost.....	23
One final word.....	24

God's Plan With Man

All things about us and above us say,

There is a God.

In earth and sea and sky we see His great works. In them is law, and plan, and power.

Now every law has its maker; every plan has its author; all power comes from some centre. The orbs that shine in our skies by day and night speak to us of Him who made them. Sun, moon and stars talk to the men and women of all lands and tell them of God's great might, of His wisdom and His love. Read what has been said about these things by men who lived long before our time.

Psalm 8:3-4 NKJV

“When I consider Your heavens,
the work of Your fingers,
The moon and the stars,
which You have ordained,
What is man that You are
mindful of him,
And the son of man that
You visit him?”¹

Now, if there is a God, we may be sure that

There is only one true God

In days gone by, men bowed down to many gods. They set up idols of their own, made of wood and stone. These gods were false. They could not see or hear; nor could they think or talk, or feel.² The Bible makes known to us the living and true God. Here are some of the things the Bible tells us about Him:

- God is one. He has no equal. He is high above all. Ephesians 4:6 “There is ... one God and Father of us all, who is above all and through all and in all.”³
- God did not begin. He has been from all time, and will be for ever. Psalm 90:1 & 2 NKJV

“LORD, You have been our dwelling place in all generations.
Before the mountains were brought forth,
Or ever You had formed the earth and the world,
Even from everlasting to everlasting,
You are God.”⁴

¹ See also Psalm 19:1-6, Job 38:31-33, Isaiah 40:26

² Psalm 115:4-8

³ See also Deuteronomy 6:4, Isaiah 45:5 & 22, 1 Corinthians 8:6

⁴ See also: Isaiah 40:28, 1 Timothy 1:17

- God dwells in heaven. Yet by His Spirit (or power) He fills all space. In that way He is in all places, to see and hear and do.⁵

God has a plan

- God made the heavens and the earth, and the nations upon earth. He establishes their boundaries and rules their affairs. Daniel 4:17 "... the Most High rules the kingdoms of men, and gives it to whom he will and sets over it the lowliest of men."⁶
- God created the earth for a purpose. He formed it to be filled with people who would bring glory to His Name. The present evil state of the world is because of the sins of men. But God's plan - which He stated long, long ago - is that at last

The Earth shall be filled with His glory!

Habbakuk 2:14 "For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea".⁷

God is a God of love. In fact, "God is love"⁸ He is just and true and holy; full of grace and mercy. He asks men to be like Himself. He has told us that those who obey Him in that way will at last be made to partake of His nature - that is, to live for ever in glory and power. Exodus 34:6 & 7, "The LORD, the LORD, a God merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness, keeping steadfast love for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, but who will by no means clear the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children and the children's children, to the third and the fourth generation."⁹

- God has made know His plan and His way in the Bible. It is a book all men should read, for

The Bible is God's word

It came from Him. So it is true in all its parts. It is sure; it cannot fail. God put into the minds of the men who wrote it those things He wants us to know about Himself, and about His plan with this earth and with man upon it. The Bible tells us what God has done in the past, and what He will yet do in days to come, in working out this plan.

The Bible gives to man God's law to guide him in this life, so that in the age to come he may gain eternal life. 2 Timothy 3:15-17, "...from childhood you have been acquainted with the sacred writings which are able to instruct you for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All scripture is inspired by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, that the man of God may be complete, equipped for every good work." If a man does not read the Bible, he walks in darkness. King David said of old "Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path" Psalm 119:105 NKJV, while the apostle Peter wrote of it as a "lamp shining in a dark place" which "you do well to pay attention to" 2 Peter 3:19.

⁵ Psalm 139:1-12, Matthew 6:9

⁶ See also Genesis 1:1, Nehemiah 9:6, Acts 17:24-28

⁷ See also Numbers 14:21, Isaiah 11:9, Isaiah 45:18

⁸ 1 John 4:8

⁹ See also Deuteronomy 32:4, Matthew 5:48, 2 Peter 1:4

As we write now of God's plan with man, we shall turn again and again to this great Word of God. We ask you to study with us those parts we quote.

Now let us look at what the Bible says as it tells us the story of man. In its first book (the Bible is made up of 66 Books in all) we are told that:

God formed man from the dust.

Man was made "a living being" when God breathed into him "the breath of life."¹⁰ Adam (the first man) and Eve his wife (who had been formed from one of Adam's ribs) were placed under law. In this way God put them to the test. He placed them in the garden of Eden to tend it, and told them that they could eat of the fruit of every tree but one. If they ate of the fruit of that tree, they would surely die.¹¹

Death came by Sin.

It is a sad story. They were tempted and they fell. That is, they sinned - first the woman, then the man.¹² God kept His word. He said they now must die¹³ and they died.¹⁴

After Adam's sin God said to him, "In the sweat of your face you shall eat bread till you return to the ground, for out of it you were taken, you are dust, and to dust you shall return" Genesis 3:19. But they did not die at once. God drove them out of the garden, to get their living by toil and in sorrow, "till" they returned to the dust.

Children were born to them. They too would die, and so it has gone on. Death reigns over all. A long time after Adam's day, Paul the apostle wrote, "Therefore as death came into the world through one man and death through sin, so death spread to all men, because all men sinned". Romans 5:12

What is death? What men may think about this does not help us at all. It is to the Bible we must turn. When we know what death really is, then we are able to see how great is man's need. But we also are able to see how great is God's love to man, in meeting man's need with His grace.

Now the Bible in Ecclesiastes 9:5 tells us this, "For the living know that they will die, but

The dead know nothing"

When a man is born he starts to live; when he dies he stops living. That is the plain and simple truth of the Bible. The body goes back to the dust, as God said it would; and the spirit, or breath of life, goes back to God who gave it.¹⁵ The living man, formed of the dust and breath of life, no longer is. Our lot would be dark indeed unless God gave us hope beyond the grave.

God sent His Son to save men out of death, and to give them that Life which is for ever. John 3:16 "For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have

¹⁰ Genesis 2:7

¹¹ Geneses 2:17

¹² Genesis 3:6, 1 Timothy 2:14

¹³ Genesis 3:19

¹⁴ Genesis 9:9

¹⁵ Ecclesiastes 12:7

eternal life.” That is of course, if men will accept His way. He asks men to repent and return to Him. He offers to forgive their sins if they do. Isaiah 55:6-7 “Seek the LORD while he may be found, call upon him while he is near; let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; let him return to the LORD, that he may have mercy on him, and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.”¹⁶

In this way God shows His love for a lost world. He sent His Son to lead men back to Him, as a shepherd brings back sheep that have gone astray.¹⁷ Jesus said he was the Good Shepherd, who gave his life for the sheep.¹⁸

Jesus is the Son of God.

Back in Eden God had said - after our first parents sinned against Him - that the seed of the woman would bruise the serpent’s head¹⁹. The serpent was the tempter of the woman, and the cause of sin. Eve had acted on the serpent’s lie, “You shall not surely die” Genesis 3:4. And so the serpent came to stand for SIN. To bruise the serpent’s head, then, meant to put an end to sin, and to all the evil that sin had brought upon men.

But who is the woman’s seed, whom God said would bring this about? It is the man Jesus²⁰, of whom God said, “This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased” Matthew 3:17. God was well pleased with him because, as Jesus said himself, “I always do what is pleasing to him” John 8:29.

In Galatians 4:4 we read “when the time had fully come, God sent forth his Son, born of a woman” Jesus was because man was not his father, though woman was his mother. His Father was God Himself. The Bible tells us that God chose the Jewish virgin, Mary, to be the mother of His Son. To be so, she was touched with the great power of God. God’s angel said to her, “The Holy Spirit will come upon you and the power of the Highest will overshadow you; therefore, also, that Holy One who is to be born will be called the Son of God” Luke 1:35 NKJV.

The Seed of the woman

The Holy Spirit

is the Spirit of God set apart for some special work. “Holy” means separate, or set apart. By that Power God begat Jesus, and later in Jesus’ life - when he had been baptized by John in the River Jordan - God gave him the Holy Spirit. By this means God dwelt in His Son, spoke to Israel through him, and did the mighty works (miracles) which we read of in the life of Jesus.²¹

“That Holy One” which was born of Mary was named before he was born. It was the angel of God again who said, “you shall call his name Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins.” Matthew 1:21

¹⁶ See also Acts 2:38

¹⁷ 1 Peter 2:25

¹⁸ John 10:11

¹⁹ Genesis 3:15

²⁰ Acts 2:22

²¹ Matthew 3:16, John 3:34, John 5:19, John 8:28, John 14:10, Acts 10:38

The name “Jesus” means “God (Yah) shall save”. Now, in what way does Jesus save from sin? The Bible says, “Through faith in his blood” Romans 3:25 KJV. The same Book also says:

“The just shall live by his faith.”²²

Let us look into these things. Faith is an act of the mind by which we believe in things we cannot see with our eyes. The Bible makes it clear that without faith no man can please God. Hebrews 11:1 & 6 “Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. ... And without faith it is impossible to please him. For whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him.”

God asks men to believe in His Son - in what has been done through him and in what will yet be done through him. John 3:16, “For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life.”²³ What has been done through Jesus in the past? Sin has been defeated; death has been robbed of its power; eternal life has been brought to light, 2 Timothy 1:10, “...our Savior Christ Jesus, who abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel.” Jesus is now a saved one. He is “the first fruits” of God’s saving work²⁴. He now “is able for all time to save those who draw near to God through him, since he always lives to make intercession for them” Hebrews 7:25. And man can come to God in no other way. God’s Son said of himself, “I am no one comes to the Father, but by me” John 14:6. It was this same Jesus who uttered the gracious call, “Come to me, all who labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me; for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light” Matthew 11:28-29.

The way, and the truth and the life

Jesus was of our nature

Though Son of God from birth Jesus was “made like his brethren in every respect” Hebrews 2:17, “he himself likewise partook of the same” “flesh and blood” nature as those he came to save, Hebrews 2:14. Paul tells us also in Romans 8:3 that God sent “sent his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh”. In 1 Corinthians 15:45 we read of Jesus as “the last Adam”. We saw that the first Adam sinned, and, because he sinned, he died. The last Adam, though sorely tempted, never once did sin. He never gave way to

The Devil.

The devil is the Bible name for sin in its many forms. God tells us that “each person is tempted when he is lured and enticed by his own desire” James 1:14. We know that is so, from what we feel within us.

Now Jesus, we are told, “in every respect has been tempted as we are, yet without sin” Hebrews 4:15. Yet the seed of the serpent (Jews and Gentiles joined in sin) nailed him to a tree. It was the will of God that His beloved Son should die in this way.²⁵ Jesus obeyed the

²² Habakkuk 2:4, Hebrews 10:38

²³ See also Romans 10:9-11

²⁴ 1 Corinthians 15:23

²⁵ Acts 2:23

will of His Father, even to that cruel death of the cross.²⁶ In the pouring out of his blood, his life was offered for the sins of others.²⁷ 1 Peter 2:24 “He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed.” He gave his precious life that sinful men might live through him. In this was love - love in its greatest and deepest form. Jesus himself said, “Greater love has no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends” John 15:13. Not only the love of the Son, but also the love of the Father was shown, in that He spared not His only Son, but offered him up for us all.²⁸ Paul says in Romans 5:8, “But God shows his love for us in that while we were yet sinners

Christ died for us.”

But this does not mean that God punished His Son for the sins of others. God forgives men if they unite themselves with the death of Jesus in God’s own way - that is, by baptism. Romans 6:3 & 4, “Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life.”²⁹ We shall look more closely at that matter later.

Though he died and was buried, Jesus did not - as did the first Adam - return to the dust. God’s Sentence upon the first sinners - “to dust you shall return” - was not fulfilled in Jesus, the sinless one. A just God would not allow it. Because he had been “without sin” and gave him glory. Acts 2:32 & 33, “This Jesus God raised up, and of that we all are witnesses. Being therefore exalted at the right hand of God, and having received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, he has poured out this which you see and hear.” Long before he was born, it was written of Jesus, “Thou wilt not leave my soul in hell [that is, the grave]; neither wilt thou suffer thine holy one to see corruption” Psalm 16:10, Acts 2:27 KJV. The Father gave His righteous Son life for evermore and raised him to His own right hand in heaven. Psalm 110:1 “The LORD said to my Lord, ‘Sit at My right hand, till I make Your enemies Your footstool.’” There Jesus now is, acting as the Great High Priest over his own house. His house is made up of those who bear his name in faith and truth.³⁰ Soon we shall see how we may bear his name, and so be made one with him, in order to take part in his victory.

God raised Jesus from the dead

Though he has now been so long absent from the earth,

Jesus will come again

just as really as he went away. As Jesus went up to heaven (about six weeks after he rose from the dead) those who were with him were told by angels “This Jesus ... will come in the same way as you saw him go into heaven” Acts 1:11. From that time his apostles preached that he would return to the earth to fulfil God’s plan. Acts 3:20 & 21 “that he [God] may

²⁶ Luke 22:42, Philippians 2:8

²⁷ Isaiah 53:5, Hebrews 9:22 1 Peter 3:18

²⁸ Romans 8:32

²⁹ See also Romans 3:25, Colossians 1:14

³⁰ Hebrews 3:6

send the Christ appointed for you, Jesus, whom heaven must receive UNTIL the time for establishing all that God spoke by the mouth of his holy prophets from of old.”³¹

The dead shall be raised

The first work of the Lord Jesus when he comes again will be to raise the dead from their sleep. Daniel 12:2 “And many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.”³² But not all men will be raised. The Bible teaches that those who have known nothing of God and His plan will stay in the grave. Psalm 49:14 & 20 NKJV “Like sheep they are laid in the grave; Death shall feed on them ... Man who is in honor, yet does not understand, is like the beasts that perish.”³³ On the other hand, if a man knows God’s will and refuses to obey, he must answer for his sin. James 4:17 “Whoever knows what is right to do and fails to do it, for him it is sin.”

The dead will be raised in order to be judged and rewarded according to their works. Paul says, “For we must all appear [he was writing to people who knew God’s will] before

The judgment seat of Christ,

so that each one may receive good or evil, according to what he has done in the body” 2 Corinthians 5:10. God has made Jesus the Judge of both the dead and the living. Acts 10:42, “And he [Jesus] commanded us to preach to the people, and to testify that he is the one ordained by God to be judge of the living and the dead.”³⁴

Judgment will sort men out into two classes – the wicked and the righteous.

The wicked shall perish

The Bible shows us that the wicked will not live for ever. They will be cut off from life – that is, destroyed, after being punished as the Judge shall decide, 2 Thessalonians 1:7-9, “... when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with his mighty angels in flaming fire, inflicting vengeance upon those who do not know God and upon those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus. They shall suffer the punishment of eternal destruction and exclusion from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of his might”³⁵.

But while “the wages of sin is death, it is also true that

“The gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord” Romans 6:23. This is surely the most joyous truth set forth in the Bible. Life for evermore is not a thing we can earn as wages due. Death is the wages due to sinners, but Eternal Life can come to us only by the grace of God. Jesus will bestow this precious gift on all whom he accepts when he comes again. John 10:27-28 (Jesus speaking), “My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me; and I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish, and no one shall snatch them out of my hand.”³⁶

³¹ See also 1 Corinthians 15:23, 25, 1 Thessalonians 1:10

³² See also John 6:40, Acts 24:15, 1 Corinthians 15:52, 1 Thessalonians 4:16

³³ See also Proverbs 21:16

³⁴ See also Acts 17:31; 2 Timothy 4:1

³⁵ See also Psalm 37:9, 10 & 20; Malachi 4:1

³⁶ See also Romans 2:6, 7; 1 Corinthians 15:53, 54; 1 John 2:25

Belief and baptism are both necessary

if we would gain that great prize of Life Eternal. Jesus himself said “He who believes and is baptized will be saved” (Mark 16:16). The things we must believe are those things which Jesus preached, and which he told his apostles to preach after he left the earth. Those things are the gospel (or good news) of the kingdom of God.

Read what the Bible tells us of the theme of Jesus’ preaching in Luke 8:1 - “Soon afterward he went on through cities and villages, preaching and bringing the good news of the kingdom of God.” See also Matthew 4:23 & Mark 1:14. It was the Kingdom of God. Now read what his apostles spoke about as they carried out their Master’s order to “Go into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature” (Acts 8:12 & Acts 28:31). Notice that in Acts 8:12 we are told that when the people of Samaria “believed Philip as he preached good news about the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women.”

Baptism was never carried out except with those who knew and believed the truth of the Gospel. Indeed, there is no true baptism apart from belief of The Truth. Jesus said “you will know the truth, and the truth will make you free” John 8:32, while Paul tells us in Ephesians 4:4-6: “There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the one hope that belongs to your call, one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of us all, who is above all and through all and in all.” We must know that “one God” and “one Lord” (John 17:3), we must believe in that “one faith” and “one hope”, if we would take part in that “one baptism”.

We shall return later to this subject of baptism and ask the question: What does it do for us?

Having looked at the things which concern the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, let us now ask:

What is the Kingdom of God?

As we read the Bible, we find that very much is said about it. Not only was it preached by Jesus and his apostles, but we also read of it in the Old Testament. For example, in the Book of Daniel we are told it is a Kingdom which God will set up on this earth³⁷. It will bring to an end all human rule. It will be world-wide, and it will last for ever. In Daniel 7:18, we find that “the saints” are those who will “possess the Kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever.” Those who put on the name of Christ in baptism³⁸ are those “called to be saints” Romans 1:7. If they prove faithful to that high calling, they will – as said before – receive at Christ’s coming that great reward of Life for evermore; but not only so, for they will be given a place of honour and power and glory and joy in that everlasting Kingdom of God. That is part of God’s plan with man.

Now, a kingdom is made up of many parts. It must have a King, co-rulers, a capital city, subjects, laws, and territory (or lands). The Bible informs us on all these things. It tells us that in that coming world-wide Kingdom. When he stood before Pilate as a prisoner, the Roman governor asked him “Are you a king then?” Jesus replied “For this cause I was born, and for ³⁷ Daniel 2:44 “And in the days of these kings the God of heaven will set up a kingdom which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people; it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand forever.”

Jesus will be king

³⁸ Galatians 3:27

this cause I have come into the world, that I should bear witness to the truth” John 18:37. It is a vital part of the truth about Jesus that he was born to be a King. The angel Gabriel said to Mary, the mother of Jesus, before her son was born, “He will be great, and will be called the Son of the Most High; and the Lord God will give to him the throne of his father David, and he will reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there will be no end” Luke 1:32. Now in those words of the angel of God these very important facts are brought before us:

- Jesus is both Son of God and son of David. (He was born in the line of descent from David, Mary his mother being of David’s lineage);
- He is yet to reign upon the throne of David over the Kingdom of Israel for evermore.

These things lead us back in history to made when David was reigning as King of Israel in Jerusalem about 3000 years ago. We have a record of it in 2 Samuel 7:12-16.³⁹ There we learn that God promised His royal servant that He would give him a son who would reign on his throne for ever. The words of the angel to Mary a thousand years later (already quoted from Luke 1:32) show clearly who the promised son is. Now Jesus has never reigned on David’s throne as King of Israel. He was cast out by that nation and “brought as a lamb to the slaughter” Isaiah 53:7. Over his cross was the writing in which the leaders of that nation mocked his claim, “Jesus of Nazareth, the King of the Jews.” That statement will yet prove to be true.

God’s Covenant with David

So, in order that God’s covenant with David may be fulfilled to the utmost, certain things are yet necessary:

- Jesus himself must return to the earth
- David himself must be raised from the dead
- Israel as a nation must humbly own her once rejected King
- The Kingdom of Israel, under Christ, must be restored in the land where David reigned.

The stirring signs of our times show that these great events are near.

Israel – a special people

We now must ask: What has become of David’s throne and kingdom? They do not exist. The kingdom came to an end because Israel, the nation which God had chosen to be “a special people unto Himself” Deuteronomy 7:6, failed to obey their God. The time came when God could no longer bear with them, and He cast them off. But He did not cast them away. That is, He did not cast them off for ever. This is what Paul says in Romans 11:1-2 “has God rejected his people? By no means! ... God has NOT rejected his people whom he foreknew.” He says again (verses 25-27) “a hardening has come upon part of Israel, until

³⁹ “When your days are fulfilled and you lie down with your fathers, I will raise up your offspring after you, who shall come forth from your body, and I will establish his kingdom. He shall build a house for my name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom for ever. I will be his father, and he shall be my son ... And your house and your kingdom shall be made sure for ever before me; your throne shall be established for ever.” 2 Sam 7:12-16

the full number of the Gentiles come in, and so all Israel⁴⁰ will be saved; as it is written, ‘The Deliverer will come from Zion, he will banish ungodliness from Jacob’; ‘and this will be my covenant with them when I take away their sins.’”

But now let us go back to that time when God cast off His people by handing them over to Gentile⁴¹ rule. He sent His prophet Ezekiel to say to the last king who sat on David’s throne, King Zedekiah, “I will overturn, overturn, overturn it:⁴² and it shall be no more until he come WHOSE RIGHT IT IS, and I will give it him” Ezekiel 21:27. So it came about. Babylon, Greece and Rome, at different times in history, took part in the overturning. When Jesus was born (he ‘whose right it is’) the land was in the hands of the Romans.

Jesus himself foretold that Jerusalem would fall and the Jews would be scattered. He said, “they [the Jews] will fall by the edge of the sword, and be led captive among all nations; and Jerusalem will be trodden down by the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled” Luke 21:24. And so it was. In A.D. 70 Jerusalem fell, and ever since that time, until our own days, the Jews have wandered among the nations.

The Jews – God’s witnesses

But it was part of God’s great plan that the Jews must return to their homeland after their long scattering. He had said so through His prophets. For instance, through Ezekiel He said in chapter 37:21-22 “I will take the people of Israel from the nations among which they have gone, and will gather them from all sides, and bring them to their own land; and I will make them one nation in the land, upon the mountains of Israel; and ONE KING shall be king over them all”.

In all their long and bitter history, the things that have happened to the Jews have proved the TRUTH of God’s Word. God says of them “you are my witnesses ... that I am God”, Isaiah 43:12 NKJV.

In Israel today we have one of the greatest

Signs of our times.

In our own days we have seen – and are still seeing – the Jews being brought “into their own land”. The two great World Wars did much to help that movement forward. In May 1948, we saw the State of Israel proclaimed before the world. Thus they were made “one nation in the land ... of Israel”. But, as yet that “one King” has not appeared. How near we must be to His coming!

Jesus gave us other signs we were to look for just prior to His return. He said there would be “on the earth distress of nations with perplexity ... men’s hearts failing them from fear and the expectation of those things which are coming on the earth” Luke 21:25-26 NKJV. And is not that exactly what we now see? Jesus added in verse 31: “when you see these things happening, know that the kingdom of God is near.” And there are many other signs we cannot look at now. But all point the same way.

⁴⁰ i.e. natural Israel and spiritual Israel

⁴¹ Gentile means non-Jewish

⁴² i.e. God will overturn the nation of Israel

Now let us go back to the Covenant. If Jesus is to reign upon the throne of his father David, then Jerusalem is yet to become the Queen City of the whole earth, for it was there that David reigned. God's prophet says, Jeremiah 3:17, "At that time

Jerusalem shall be called the throne of the LORD"

Jesus himself said that Jerusalem is "the City of the Great King" Matthew 5:35. See too, what David himself wrote about it in Psalm 48:2⁴³. God says He will set His King upon His "holy hill of Zion" Psalm 2:6, and declare the decree of world ownership in his favour. To "His Anointed" – the Christ, or Messiah – God says, "I will make the nations your heritage, and the ends of the earth your possession" Psalm 2:8. This shows us that Jerusalem will be the centre of God's Kingdom, and the whole earth will be its dominions. The King who reigns in Zion will be supreme over all the earth.⁴⁴ We read in Psalm 72:11, "Yes, all kings shall fall down before Him; All nations shall serve Him".

Now we have already seen that

Christ's faithful saints will be His co-rulers

in the Kingdom. Jesus himself told Peter that those who have followed him will share his kingly glory in that coming day⁴⁵. Paul says, "if we endure, we shall also reign with him" 2 Timothy 2:12, while in his last message to his waiting saints Jesus gives this grand promise, "He who conquers, I will grant him to sit with me on my throne" Revelation 3:21.

The accepted and glorified saints sing unto their King, "the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David" ... "And have made us kings and priests to our God; and we shall reign on the earth" Revelation 5:5 & 10 NKJV.

The earth is the promised inheritance of the righteous

This is plain from what we have said before about the Kingdom. But it also was clearly stated by Jesus himself, "Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth" Matthew 5:5. David said the same thing, Psalm 37:11 NKJV, "But the meek shall inherit the earth, and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace." Also in Proverbs 11:31 we have the same truth set out, "the righteous will be recompensed on the earth". NKJV

Christ and his saints will reign over a re-born Israel (their unbelief taken away), and over those among the Gentiles who shall escape the just judgments of God. These will be the

Mortal subjects of the Kingdom,

who will partake of the great benefits which the righteous rule of Christ will bring. Israel will then be the foremost of the nations.⁴⁶ God's prophet declares, "For the nation and kingdom that will not serve you shall perish; those nations shall be utterly laid waste." Isaiah 60:12.

Those who reign with Christ will be immortal (never-dying), but even among the mortal peoples of the earth the span of life will be much increased. We are told that "the child shall die a hundred years old" Isaiah 65:20. It means that one who dies at the age will be looked upon as only a child.

⁴³ "beautiful in elevation, is the joy of all the earth, Mount Zion, in the far north, the city of the great King."

⁴⁴ Zechariah 14:9

⁴⁵ Matthew 19:28

⁴⁶ Isaiah 60:10-15

It is not hard for us to see how much better life will be when all mankind is governed by which will bring joy and peace to all men and glory to God. How much evil and misery in our world today comes from bad rulers and bad laws! But THEN – how very different it will be! The Bible tells us, “For out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem” Isaiah 2:3. So good will be that law, and so joyous its effects, that men will wish to know more about it, that they may keep it. They will say (see same verse), “Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD to the house of the God of Jacob; that he may teach us his ways, and that we may walk in his paths.”

One wise, just and perfect law

And now we must say a little more about

The blessings of this coming age

which will result from the righteous reign of Israel’s King, and the going forth of that perfect law from Zion to the ends of the earth. The prophet tells us in the same Scripture, verse 4, that wars will cease, and weapons of strife will be made into tools for the peaceful tilling of the soil. All nations will disarm. Micah 4:3 says, “nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.” What a grand thing this will be!

In the coming of Christ, lies the only remedy for our war-torn and war-weary world. He is “the Prince of Peace” and it is of him the prophet says, “Of the increase of his government and of peace there will be no end, upon the throne of David, and over his kingdom, to establish it, and to uphold it with justice and with righteousness” Isaiah 9:6-7. For this blessed time Jesus taught his disciples to pray, “Your kingdom come. Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven” Matthew 6:10.

When Jesus was born in Bethlehem, the angels sang their lovely anthem, “Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men” Luke 2:14. But only when Jesus reigns as King, will those words be fulfilled. “Glory to God” is man’s first duty. When that is given, peace will follow. Meanwhile, it is God’s rule, in all His dealings with men, that “there is no peace ... for the wicked” Isaiah 57:21.

To get a full picture of the joys and blessings of Christ’s reign, read Psalm 72. It brings before our minds a lovely picture – a King reigning in righteousness; his power extends world-wide; there is “abundance of peace” verse 7; no more violence or brutality; no more oppression, or want, or misery; the poor and needy ones cared for as never before.

What good news it is when we read in verse 17, “His name shall endure for ever ... and

Men shall be blessed in Him:

all nations shall call him blessed.” David finishes his psalm with gladsome words of praise to the great Author of this glorious plan, “Blessed be the LORD God, the God of Israel, Who only does wondrous things! and blessed be His glorious name forever! And

Let the whole earth be filled with His glory

Amen and Amen.” And that, as we said at the first, is God’s plan with man.

In other parts of the scriptures, Isaiah 35 for instance, these same glad tidings⁴⁷ are set forth, and many other things are told us about the Kingdom of God. Even the very earth will be set free from the curse that lies upon it.⁴⁸ We said before that it is Christ's work to take away the effects of Adam's sin. When he reigns, the earth will bring forth so plentifully⁴⁹ that "the ploughman shall overtake the reaper" Amos 9:13. That is to say, the harvest of the fields will be so great that the crops will scarcely be gathered in before sowing time comes round again. (From the context – verses 11-15 – notice when this is.)

Christ will "make all things new".⁵⁰ He is the great healer of our race, in the physical sense, as well as in the spiritual sense. Disease and illness will vanish away⁵¹ and even death itself at last shall be no more.

Paul tells us in 1 Corinthians 15:25-26 that Christ "must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. The last enemy to be destroyed is death."

The first thousand years of the Kingdom of God – often spoken of as will be the last phase of Christ's great work in bringing all things into line with the will of God. At the end of that time certain changes will take place. Those who have died during that thousand years will be raised and judged.⁵² As with those judged at Christ's return, the wicked shall perish and the righteous shall be made to live eternally.

The Millennium –

Death then will have gone for ever from the earth. None will remain but a race of redeemed, immortal ones – all partaking of God's own nature – who will fill the entire earth with His glory and His praise. Christ's redeeming work will be complete, all things now being "subjected to him".⁵³

⁴⁷ means 'good news'

⁴⁸ Genesis 3:17-18

⁴⁹ Psalm 67:6; Psalm 72:16

⁵⁰ Revelation 21:5

⁵¹ Isaiah 33:24 "And no inhabitant will say, 'I am sick'; the people who dwell there will be forgiven their iniquity."

⁵² Revelation 20:12-14

⁵³ 1 Corinthians 15:28

God will be all in all⁵⁴

and will at last be revealed to men. In Revelation 21:3-4 we are given a glorious glimpse of God's perfected plan, "Behold, the dwelling of God is with men, He will dwell with them, and they shall be his people and God himself will be with them; he will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and

Death shall be no more,

neither shall there be mourning nor crying nor pain any more, for the former things have passed away."

In the very last chapter of the Bible we read more about the "healing" of our sick world, and there⁵⁵ we meet the joyous, thrilling news;

"There shall be no more curse."

And so is brought to its grand finale God's plan with man.

As we look out on the present evil state of this godless world, we may not see much in the shape of a plan. But it is the end we must look to. You do not see the noble lines of a stately building while it is in course of being erected. But the man who designed it – the architect – and those who have looked upon his plan can see, with the eye of faith, the finished work. They know that when all the waste and worthless and unwanted materials are cleared away after the task of building is complete, the edifice will be plainly seen by all in its full grandeur and beauty.

God is the Supreme Architect, the Designer of the great plan of the ages. In His written Word He graciously permits us to view the splendid blue-print of His grand redemptive scheme. Don't let men's deeds hide from your mental view this wondrous plan of God. The works of men will pass away; God's purpose will stand. Nothing that men may do can cause that plan to fail. As the poet has so well put it:

What though none on earth assist Him!
God requires not help from man,
What though all the earth resist Him!
God will realize His plan.

Now we cannot close without bringing before you a most important matter. Having shown the graceful building, we must show now the steps that lead into it. How shall we enter this beautiful palace, and live with The King in his glory? We must first of all come out from the world.

The foundations of this coming New World Order were laid in God's Covenant with Abraham.

This man, whose name at first was Abram, was called out by God from the place in which he lived (Ur of the Chaldees) to go into a land which God promised to give him for ever (the land of Canaan). The terms of this covenant are found in:

⁵⁴ 1 Corinthians 15:28

⁵⁵ Revelation 22:3

- Genesis, Chapter 12:1-3 “And the LORD said to Abram, ‘Go from your country and your kindred and your father’s house to the land that I will show you. And I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you, and make your name great, so that you will be a blessing. I will bless those who bless you, and him who curses you I will curse; and by you all the families of the earth shall bless themselves.”
- Genesis 13:14-17 “The LORD said to Abram... ‘Lift up your eyes, and look from the place where you are, northward and southward and eastward and westward; for all the land which you see I will give to you and to your descendants for ever. I will make your descendants as the dust of the earth; so that if one can count the dust of the earth, your descendants also can be counted. Arise, walk through the length and the breadth of the land, for I will give it to you.”

Notice that God promised three things:

1. The everlasting possession of the land into which Abram came
2. A numerous seed, when Abram as yet had no child, and both he and his wife were old in years
3. The blessing of all nations in him and his seed

After Abram had moved into the land of promise (Canaan), God said to him, “No longer shall your name be Abram, but your name shall be Abraham; for I have made you the father of a multitude of nations” Genesis 17:5. Now ‘Abraham’ means ‘father of a great multitude’. This makes the promise

A world covenant.

It points to the fact (which was later revealed) that people of any nation may become, with Abraham, an heir of the promise, if he accepts God’s terms. Peter stated a sober but glorious truth when he said – just before he baptized the first Gentile convert –

“God shows no partiality,

but in every nation any one who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him” Acts 10:34. Paul speaks very plainly on this matter in Galatians 3:7, here he tells us that “it is men of faith who are the sons of Abraham.” In the next verse he shows us that the gospel of the Kingdom preached by Jesus and his apostles has its basis in these Abrahamic promises. He says, “the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, preached the gospel beforehand to Abraham, saying, ‘In you shall all the nations be blessed.’ So then, those who are men of faith are blessed with Abraham who had faith.”

Abraham showed his great faith in believing God’s word and acting upon it. We read in Hebrews 11:8-9, “By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to a place which he was to receive as an inheritance; and he went out, not knowing where he was to go. By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a foreign land”.

Through all his life Abraham never lost faith in God’s promise. He did not receive the land. God gave “him no inheritance in it, not even a foot’s length” Acts 7:5. Yet Abraham “died in faith, not having received what was promised, but having seen it and greeted it from afar” - that is, with the eye of faith, Hebrews 11:13.

Such is the kind of faith God asks of us. It is not the blood of Abraham in our veins that is needed, but the faith of Abraham in our hearts.

Abraham, as

“The heir of the World”

was “fully convinced that God was able to do what he had promised” Romans 4:21.⁵⁶ And God indeed will perform it, when Abraham is raised from the dead, to enter at last upon his promised inheritance in God’s eternal Kingdom. Mark 12:26 “And as for the dead being raised ... God said to him [Moses] ‘I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob’? He is not God of the dead, but of the living”.⁵⁷ All Abraham’s faithful seed will be with him at that day. Jesus himself said that “many will come from east and west and sit at table with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom” Matthew 8:11.⁵⁸

We now must ask - What steps must we take to gain a place among those faithful saints of old? Again we are brought to belief and baptism as the answer – that is, to faith and humble obedience.

In Galatians 3:16 Paul tells us plainly that

Christ is the seed of Abraham

through whom the covenanted blessing was to come. His death and resurrection served “to confirm the promises made to the fathers” Romans 15:8 NKJV.

Now it has pleased God to appoint baptism as the means whereby men and women – whether Jews or Gentiles by birth – may become one with Christ. This is what Paul says in Galatians 3:26-29 NKJV “For you are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus. For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus. And if you are Christ’s, then you are Abraham’s seed, and

Heirs according to Promise

There is no hope for men apart from these “precious and very great promises” 2 Peter 1:4. Even Nicodemus, who was already “a ruler of the Jews”, was told by Jesus that he must be “born again” – that is, “born of water and the spirit”, John 3:1-7.

Now we must point out that the hope of the early Christians was based on God’s promises to Abraham and David.⁵⁹ Paul, when he appeared as a prisoner before King Agrippa, said “now I stand here on trial for hope in the promise made by God to our fathers” Acts 26:6. Later, when in bonds at Rome, he declared “it is because of the hope of Israel that I am bound with this chain” Acts 28:20.

The hope of Israel

It is Paul again who says that if we are without Christ, we have NO HOPE and are without God.⁶⁰ And that is truly a sad position to be in.

⁵⁶ Read Romans 4:13-25

⁵⁷ See also Micah 7:20

⁵⁸ See also Luke 13:28-29

⁵⁹ Acts 1:6 “So when they had come together, they asked him [Jesus] ‘Lord, will you at this time restore the kingdom to Israel?’”

⁶⁰ Ephesians 2:12

By baptism into Christ's death those who were once "far off" are "brought near", verse 13. And that brings us to the question: "What is baptism?"

Baptism is a burial in water

Among the early Christians it always took that form. For example, in Acts 8, we are told how a certain man was baptized by Philip. The record says, "they both went down into the water ... and he baptized him. And when they came up out of the water ..." verses 38-39. Then in Romans 6:3-4 we read Paul's words, "Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life."

A burial is a complete covering. Now that brings us to what baptism means, and what it does for the one who submits to it.

Only dead ones are buried. And when a man is dead he does not sin. Paul says here in Romans 6:7, "he who has died is freed from sin." Now God tells us that if we would please Him, we must kill the flesh; that is to say, we must not let the lusts of the flesh rule us. We must rule them. We must cut them off with "the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God" Ephesians 6:17.⁶¹

Here is the battle of the Christian life. This is the devil we must resist and overcome. "For the desires of the flesh are against the Spirit, and the desires of the Spirit are against the flesh; for these are opposed to each other, to prevent you from doing what you would" Galatians 5:17. Paul goes on to say in verse 24 "those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires." Again he writes, "Put to death therefore what is earthly in you" Colossians 3:5.

Baptism is the burial of a man who in his mind is ready to die to sin, and to begin a new life in Christ. So Paul says, "consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus" Romans 6:11.

Baptism is the commencement of

A new life

When a man is baptized – as we saw – he is "born again"⁶² – not in body, but in mind. As a "newborn babe" he grows by "the sincere milk of the Word" 1 Peter 2:2.

Before baptism he was "in Adam"; after baptism he is "in Christ". Paul writes in 2 Corinthians 5:17, "Therefore, if any one is in Christ, he is the old has passed away, behold, the new has come." The obedient believer is still a mortal man. But he is now an heir of Eternal Life.⁶³ He is a son of God by adoption⁶⁴ and a

A new creation

⁶¹ See also Hebrews 4:12

⁶² John 3:3, 5, 7; 1 Peter 1:23

brother of the Lord Jesus Christ. He is a member of God's family. This relationship can be expressed in one word. It is the name

⁶³ Romans 8:17; Titus 1:2

⁶⁴ John 1:12; Romans 8:14-19; Hebrews 2:10

“Christadelphian”

which means a brother of Christ. It is the name of Christ and the Greek word for ‘brother’ combined in one term. Jesus said he is not ashamed to call them his brethren who do the will of his Father in heaven.⁶⁵

One who obeys the call of the Gospel (by baptism) holds a new status in God’s sight. He has new hopes, new ideals, new attitudes, and a new purpose in living. The central aim of his life is that pointed to by his Master, when he said:

“Seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness” Matthew 6:33. Every man should have a purpose in life. To have no aim is to drift with the stream. Every wise man will make the Kingdom of God his goal, and will bring his life into line with that great and vital objective.

Now we saw that only “by faith” can a sinner join the ranks of those who are “called to be saints” Romans 1:7. But “works” also are needed to ensure a saint’s acceptance at the coming of the Lord.

“Faith without works is dead” James 2:20, 26

The “works” which God requires are the keeping of the Commandments of Christ. The daily reading of God’s Word will help us to know and to remember them. Like “the law and the prophets,” they are summed up in two great basic precepts:

You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength

You shall love your neighbour as yourself

Jesus himself said, “There is no other commandment greater than these” Mark 12:30-31. “LOVE is the fulfilling of the law” Romans 13:10. It is the “short cut” to the keeping of all the precepts which the great Law-Giver has placed before men. Our love towards God and man is the effect of a cause. “We love, because he first loved us” 1 John 4:19. Now, if we love the Father, we will not love the world, that is, in the sense of living or desiring its ways. James asks, “friendship with the world is enmity with God” James 4:4.

John puts the matter quite clearly when he writes, “Do not love the world or the things in the world. If any one loves the world, love for the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh and the lust of the eyes and the pride of life, is not of the Father but is of the world. And the world passes away, and the lust of it; but—he who does the will of God abides for ever” 1 John 2:15-17.

These are sober words. They will be deeply pondered by every man and woman who has an interest in things that will last.

Jesus, on his betrayal night, prayed for his brethren in this way. He was soon going to leave them. “I do not pray that You should take them out of the world, but that You should keep them from evil. They are

⁶⁵ Hebrews 2:11; Matthew 12:50

Not of the world,

just as I am not of the world. Sanctify them by Your truth. Your word is truth.” John 17:15-17 NKJV

Therefore, in the world but not of it is the position of God’s people pending the coming of their King from heaven. Through the preaching of His glorious Word, God is visiting the Gentiles, “to take out of them

A people for his name” Acts 15:14

The Gospel is a call to separateness. As God called to Abraham to “Come out!”, so to all who would be His children He still says: “Come out from them, and be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch nothing unclean; then I will welcome you, and I will be a father to you, and you shall be my sons and daughters, says the Lord Almighty” 2 Corinthians 6:17-18.

Those who have obeyed God’s call to “come out” have no part in the military and political affairs of this present evil world.⁶⁶ They daily pray and wait for a Kingdom which will break the existing order of things in pieces.

Having regard to the command “Do not be unequally yoked together with unbelievers” 2 Corinthians 6:14 NKJV, they marry “only in the Lord” 1 Corinthians 7:39. They regard the marriage vow as binding until death or the Lord’s coming.⁶⁷

They avoid many of the habits and pleasures of the godless society around them, in the midst of which they are commanded to shine as lights, “But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God’s own people, that you may declare the wonderful deeds of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light” 1 Peter 2:9.⁶⁸

On the first day of each week they assemble to worship the Father and to remember His Son in the way appointed – that is, by eating the broken bread (the symbol of his body) and drinking the poured out wine (the emblem of his shed blood). This they do as a loving memorial of his sacrifice, and to celebrate his victory over death.. “And he took bread, and when he had given thanks he broke it and gave it to them, saying, ‘This is my body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.’ And likewise the cup after supper, saying, ‘This cup which is poured out for you is the new covenant in my blood.’” Luke 22:19-20⁶⁹

By doing so they follow the custom of the apostles, “On the first day of the week, when we were gathered together to break bread ...” Acts 20:7. Thus they continue “steadfastly in the apostles’ doctrine and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in prayers” Acts 2:42, rejoicing to see the many signs which feed their faith as the coming of their Lord draws nearer

⁶⁶ Galatians 1:4

⁶⁷ Matthew 5:32 “But I say to you that every one who divorces his wife, except on the ground of unchastity, makes her an adulteress; and whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery.”

⁶⁸ See also Matthew 5:14

⁶⁹ See also 1 Corinthians 11:23-29

from day to day. “not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near” Hebrews 10:25.

Meanwhile, there is much to be done on their part. It is worthy of that grand Kingdom which the Gospel Hope sets before us. Jesus said, “No one who puts his hand to the plough and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God” Luke 9:62. Having begun, we must never turn back.

The building of a character

We have a solemn lesson from the history of God’s ancient people, Israel. They were called out from the dark bondage of Egypt to march to the land of promise. God led them through the wilderness. This was their testing-time, and many thousands of them failed. When their faith was put to the test, they turned back in their hearts to what they had left behind them.⁷⁰ And as a result, they did not reach their goal.

Now read what Paul says about these things in 1 Corinthians 10:1-11. Read also verse 5 of Jude, where he reminds us that “the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who did not believe.”

Baptism then, is not all. There is a proverb which says “A journey of a thousand miles begins with a single step.” But that first step, important as it is, is not the completed journey. Many more steps must be taken.

Baptism is but the first step on the journey to the Kingdom of God. The path lies ever onward and upward. After that first act of faith

“There is a battle to be fought,
An onward race to run,
A crown of glory to be sought,
A victory to be won.”

In Hebrews 6:1 NKJV we read “Therefore leaving the discussion of the elementary principles of Christ,

Let us go on to perfection”

That is a high mark indeed. But it is what we are called upon to aim at in our life in Christ. Christ himself is our pattern. Not only has he “Suffered for us, leaving us an example, that you should follow His steps” 1 Peter 2:21 NKJV, but he daily helps us to walk in that path of obedience he trod. And the Father himself helps us through the Son.

Paul says that in this work of building, “we are God’s fellow workers” 1 Corinthians 3:9. What a partnership this is! How can it fail, unless we ourselves fail?

This great work of building a character well pleasing in God’s sight requires both subtraction and addition. We must subtract – i.e. take away, put off, lay aside – the works of “the old man” of the flesh.⁷¹ “put them all away: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and foul talk from

⁷⁰ Numbers 14:4

⁷¹ Ephesians 4:22-31 NKJV “put off, concerning your former conduct, the old man which grows corrupt according to the deceitful lust and be renewed in the spirit of your mind, and that you put on the new man which was created according to God, in true righteousness and holiness. Therefore, putting away lying, ‘Let each one of you speak truth with his neighbor,’ for we are members of one another. ‘Be angry, and do not sin’: do not let the sun go down on your wrath, nor give place to the devil. Let him who stole steal no longer, but rather let him labor, working with his hands what is good that he may have something to give him who has need. Let no corrupt word proceed out of your mouth, but what is good for necessary edification, that it may impart your mouth. Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have put off the old nature with its practices” Colossians 3:8-9. We must add, or put on, the qualities of “the new man” of the Spirit; in other words, the attributes of Christ, “and have put on the new nature, which is being renewed in knowledge after the image of its creator ... Put on then, as God’s chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassion, kindness, lowliness, meekness, and patience, forbearing one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. And above all these put on love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony.” Colossians 3:10, 12-14.⁷²

A word of gentle warning here. This work of being made like Christ in character now, that we might – when he comes – be made “like him” in the glorious nature he now bears,⁷³ is one which may bring us trial and suffering. This should not cause us any wonder. It has pleased God, “in bringing many sons to glory, should make the pioneer of their salvation

Perfect through suffering” Hebrews 2:10

The “many sons” cannot well expect to be “made perfect”⁷⁴ by any other way than that which God appointed for their “Captain”. Gold is purified by fire. Gems are made beautiful by polishing. The living stones which make up God’s spiritual temple must be hewn into shape.⁷⁵ “Jesus Christ himself” is “the cornerstone” of that magnificent building.⁷⁶ Every other “stone” must be brought into line.

“Beloved, do not be surprised” wrote Peter “at the fiery ordeal which comes upon you to prove you, as though something strange were happening to you. But rejoice in so far as you share Christ’s sufferings, that you may also rejoice and be glad when his glory is revealed” 1 Peter 4:12-13. We need such a faith as that of Abraham to sustain us through this time of testing. We must, with that eye of faith, always take the long-range view, and never, never despair.⁷⁷ We are assured that “in everything” (even those things which may seem very hard to bear) “God works for good with those who love him, who are called according to his purpose” Romans 8:28.

It is wise then, to

Count the cost

The apostle Paul was a son of God who endured much in the way of sore trial. And this is his summing up: “I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory that is to be revealed to us” Romans 8:18. In another place he writes, “For this slight momentary affliction is preparing for us an eternal weight of glory beyond all grace to the hearers. And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. Let all bitterness, wrath, anger, clamor and evil speaking be put away from you, with all malice.” See also Hebrews 12:1

⁷² See also 2 Peter 1:5-8 & Galatians 5:22-23 “But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control; against such there is no law.”

⁷³ 1 John 3:2 & Philippians 3:20-21 “But our commonwealth is in heaven, and from it we await a Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ, who will change our lowly body to be like his glorious body”.

⁷⁴ Hebrews 11:40 “God had foreseen something better for us, that apart from us they should not be made perfect.”

⁷⁵ 1 Peter 2:5-6 “like living stones be yourselves built into a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. For it stands in scripture: ‘Behold, I am laying in Zion a stone, a cornerstone chosen and precious, and he who believes in him will not be put to shame.’”

⁷⁶ Ephesians 2:20-21

⁷⁷ 2 Corinthians 4:8 “We are afflicted in every way, but not crushed; perplexed, but not driven to despair”

comparison, because we look not to the things that are seen but to the things that are unseen; for the things that are seen are transient, but the things that are unseen are eternal” 2 Corinthians 4:17-18.⁷⁸

Never forget the searching “profit and loss” question which the Saviour himself placed before men, “For what will it profit a man, if he gains the whole world and forfeits his life?” Matthew 16:26. In other terms: A man, plus the world, minus his life, equals – what? The answer is simple. Work the problem out. In doing so, you will find the only true scale of real values.

In view of all these things, how important it is that, after baptism, we keep the example of Christ ever before our minds. How vital it is that we faithfully remember him in the way he himself commanded. How urgent it is that we make use of those great helps which God has given His people to strengthen and sustain them in their waiting and working for His Kingdom – that is, the daily reading and study of His precious Word and constant approach to His “throne of grace” in prayer, through the great High Priest of His appointing.⁷⁹ Psalm 119:97-99 NKJV, “Oh, how I love Your law!

It is my meditation all the day.
You, through Your commandments,
make me wiser than my enemies;
For they are ever with me.
I have more understanding than all my teachers,
for Your testimonies are my meditation.”

Also, 2 Timothy 3:16-17, “All Scripture is inspired by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, that the man of God may be complete, equipped for every good work.”

It is part of God’s plan with man that, in this way, there should be going on continually this great work of making ready “a people prepared for the Lord” Luke 1:17 NKJV.

Are you one of them? You are surely interested in God’s plan - otherwise you would not have read to this point. Then why not invest your faith in the promises of God? They cannot fail They are as sure as the rising of tomorrow’s sun.

One final word

The time is short. Our world today stands on the verge of a mighty change. Meanwhile, “the longsuffering of our Lord is salvation”⁸⁰ It could mean salvation for you! This is your opportunity! “Now is the acceptable time”.⁸¹

Only the present is ours. The past is now gone, and the future is not yet. And “What is your life? For you are a mist that appears for a little time and then vanishes” James 4:14.

Then again, “you do not know what a day may bring forth” Proverbs 27:1. We hold our present fleeting life by such a slender thread. Be wise. God gave it to you for a time - and

⁷⁸ See also Hebrews 11:1

⁷⁹ Hebrews 4:14-15; 1 John 2:1

⁸⁰ 2 Peter 3:15 NKJV

⁸¹ 2 Corinthians 6:2 “ ‘At the acceptable time I have listened to you, and helped you on the day of salvation.’ Behold, now is the acceptable time; behold, now is the day of salvation.”

for a purpose. Make full use of it while you have it. Use it as a stepping-stone to greater things. It can lead to life more joyous and more lasting.

Never forget that the sun will go down at last on your day of opportunity.

“Now is the day of salvation” 2 Corinthians 6:2.

Then, “Today, when you hear his voice”,⁸² “Seek the LORD while he may be found, call upon him while he is near!” Isaiah 55:6.

Now is the time!

⁸² Hebrews 3:7; See also Psalm 95:7